REGISTER NOW FOR
CRASH COURSE
TRADE POLICY
with THE TRADE GUYS
THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 2020
CSIS Executive Education is offering a one-day seminar on the fundamentals of U.S. international trade policy and politics. CSIS experts Scott Miller and Bill Reinsch, known as the Trade Guys from their highly-rated weekly podcast, will conduct the program.

Crash Course will address:

- How trade policy is formulated by the executive branch and the Congress
- How U.S. trade laws support or prevent specific actions
- How trade remedy (AD/CVD) laws operate
- The challenges of multilateral institutions
- Key trade policy issues in the Trump administration

The course is set for Thursday, April 2, 2020 and tuition is $1,000 per person. To register, please contact Joel Martinez at jmartinez.csis.org.